All other books...

If you are taking a course online you will need to order your books through the Barnes and Noble web site. Go to www.campbell.edu and click on the Bookstore link in the top right hand corner. If your course is in the classroom and it is not a loaner listed above you will also need to purchase your textbook from the web site previously mentioned. Further instructions are given in this booklet for ordering.

Do I have to buy my textbook from the Pope Bookstore?

As a Campbell student you are never obligated to purchase your textbooks from us. You are free to purchase a book from any other source you so choose. However, it is your responsibility to ensure you are buying the correct book for your class.

What about Book Returns?

Since book purchases are through the Main Campus Bookstore you will need to return your textbook to their office. Please coordinate with them the best method of return. (910) 893-1452

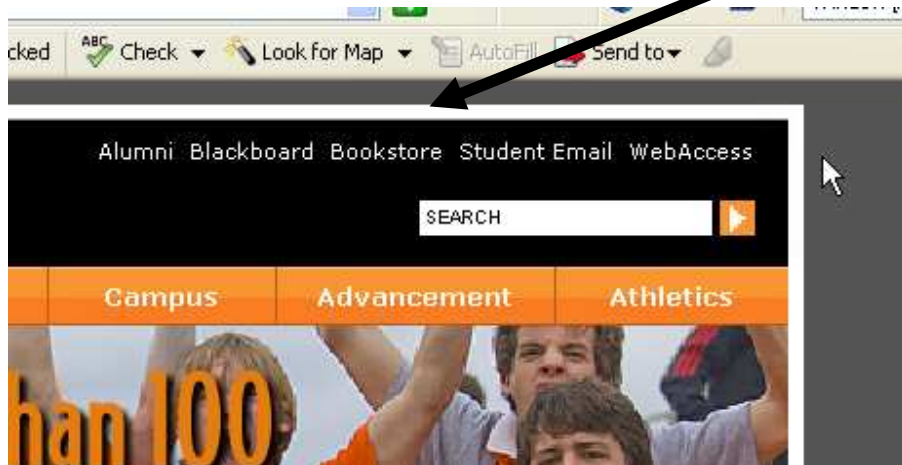

Do you buy back used textbooks?

The Pope Campus Bookstore does not buy back textbooks. The Main Campus Bookstore will purchase used textbooks from students during any semester providing it is a current edition Campbell University is using. You are also welcome to post your used textbook on our "For Sale" bulletin board across from the Bookstore window.
