CUSOM Research Faculty Profile

Name: David K. Gittelman, D.O., DFAPA, FAPM
Title: Associate Professor and Chair
Department: Department of Psychiatry

Current Research Areas/Interests:

- Religion and medicine
- Medically underserved populations
- Psychosomatic medicine
- Pain
- Medical ethics

Active Research Project(s):

- Influence of religious belief on choice of primary care and practice in underserved areas/populations

Publications

Selected Publications

• Gittelman, DK: The North Carolina Medical Board’s stand against physician participation in judicial executions: implications for physician’s ethics and professionalism. Wake County Physician, 2010;15:27